Copy to Mr. Daniel Goodrich
Haverhill

Boston Oct. 11. 1841.

Mr. Goodrich,

Dear Sir,

I presume from your addressing me on the subject of your letter that we are acquainted with each other, & that when I see you I shall recognize you, though I do not do so from the mere name. I suppose also that you will bring the certificates with you, required by law. If so, it will give me pleasure to do what you desire. My house is in Poplar Street corner of Poplar Place. It is near the Lowell Depot; & you will do well to come directly there. We shall be happy to entertain you. Should you not do so, I will thank you to write me the particular hour you will call; as I may find it inconvenient to be at home all the time from 10 o'clock A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M.

Yours respectfully
A. A. Phelps.
